

1 John 1:1-5

1 John 1:1-5 ESV

1. That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— 2. the life was made manifest, and we have seen it, and testify to it and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was made manifest to us— 3. that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4. And we are writing these things so that our joy may be complete. 5. This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

Things to THINK About

1. Why was this letter written? What does that mean? (1:4)

2. What was from the beginning? (1:1)

3. Why do you think John stressed his and this community of believers' personal, physical, historical encounter with Jesus?

4. What do you think the terms “light” and “darkness” represent?

5. In what way do we “walk in darkness”?

6. How can we “walk in the light”?

7. What steps will you take this week to walk in the light?
